

White

St. Felix, Cuvée Pierre Martin Blanc

A pale yellow wine, with a refreshing aromatic character. Think green apples, pears and citrus. The wine is dry and juicy, and comes with a bite, thanks to the refreshingly bitter undertone.

Famille Perrin , Luberon Blanc, France

This lightly coloured wine is like a freshly picked bouquet of flowers. It offers citrus, pear and fennel in it's taste palette and the smell of white flowers. Little hints of lemon and vanilla make sure this is a refreshing beverage.

Cantina Gorgo Chardonnay Del Veneto

This wine tastes like a day on the country side. It's colored like freshly yielded hay and tastes like flowers, fresh lemons and peaches. It has a lot of character, thanks to its firm structure and refreshing, acidic undertone.

Esperanza Rueda Verdejo/Viura

Tender and tempting, with slight hints of tangerine and grapefruit: that's the story of this wine. It comes in a crystal, lemon like colour. This fresh and juicy wine comes with a nice salty undertone.

Rosé wine

St. Felix, Cuvée Pierre Martin Rosé

This Rosé wine comes in beautiful pale pink and offers all the joys of freshly picked red fruit, like strawberries and raspberries. It's a very friendly and very 'practical' wine: thanks to the full structure and undertones of both nuts and herbs, you can drink this one all throughout the year.

Portal Calcada Vinho Verde

This joyful Portuguese wine is made for the summer. It's colour is cherry red, which gives you a fairly sharp idea of its taste: a lot of red fruit, with a light, herby undertone. It's secret ingredient are almonds: this gives it a slightly bitter edge that brings the wine in perfect balance.

Red

Domaine St. Felix, Cuvée Pierre Martin Rouge

A nice and generous red wine. It has loads of black berries in its palette. The undertone of this wine is super smooth.

Enate Tempranillo Joven Somontano, Spanje

Some wines just beg to be tasted, like this red one from Spain. It has a bright red colour and is full of taste: red fruit, caramel and even licorice!

It's a rich wine, and also very nuanced. Pleasantly acidic. This red wine is also very tasty when chilled!

ILauri Bajo, Montepulciano d'Abruzzo

This wine has a beautiful full red color with purple accents. It has an intense, tempting palette filled with red fruit and smoky, wooden accents. This one is almost smooth like velvet.
